And finally:- This weekend we enter the final week of the Easter Season as we look forward to the celebration of Pentecost next weekend and the return to 'Ordinary Time'. During these fifty days bathed in Easter glory, through our reading of the Acts of the Apostles, we have listened to the stories of the Church in its beginnings. We have meditate on how, under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, the Apostles faithfully proclaimed the truth with such faith filled conviction that the Church grew from strength to strength, and how the message spread from Jerusalem throughout the world. In the days that lay between the Ascension and Pentecost the Apostles, united in prayer, waited for the coming of the Holy Spirit who would equip them for the mission that lay ahead. As we prepare to leave behind the days of Easter may we never allow the joy filled grace of this time to grow cold in our hearts. May the mystery of our redemption in Christ continue to inspire us in all that we do throughout this coming year, and may we be ever attentive to the voice of the Holy Spirit who calls us each day into the Lord's service.

May God bless and protect you all. Fr. Craig
