Pope Francis:

In these days of being hospitalised, I have experienced how important good health care is, health care accessible to all. This is a precious benefit that must never be lost, which needs everyone's contribution.

Data Protection – Live-streaming

Sunday 9.30am Mass, and all weekday Masses, will continue to be live-streamed. The camera is situated at the front of the church so that only the Sanctuary is visible. If, however, you are sitting on the right side of the church you will become visible, in a way in which you might be recognisable, for a brief moment as you return from receiving Holy Communion. If you do not wish to appear on the live-stream please inform one of the stewards who will ensure that you are seated on the left of the church.

The Ending of COVID Restrictions

The government has now announced that "all restrictions imposed in response to COVID-19 will be lifted on Monday 19th July". At the time of writing there have, as yet, been no guidelines from the Bishops' Conference. Whilst I am very much looking forward to removing all of the signs of these restrictions from the church, it is with caution that we must, and are going to, proceed. Whatever the instructions, for the time being, the Sunday Mass schedule will remain as it is; however, you will now be free to attend any of the Masses without having to 'Book in'. I am presuming that the use of facemasks will become, as in all other sectors, an individual choice. Once I have received the definitive guidelines from the Bishops' Conference I will publish them on the Homepage of the Parish Website, and then further clarify what steps we will be taking here in the parish on next weekend's Newsletter.

The Pope's prayer intention for the month of July is:- Social Friendship. We pray that, in social, economic and political situations of conflict, we may be courageous and passionate architects of dialogue and friendship.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please remember to inform Fr. Craig directly in case of sickness, especially if it requires hospital treatment or a prolonged absence from Mass. If you cannot inform the clergy yourself it is then your family who should take on this responsibility.

School Summer Holiday

On Wednesday of this week we see the end of another academic year. After what has probably been one of the most fraught and stressful years on record, we pray that the staff, and students, of our schools have a restful and joy filled summer holiday. I would also like to take this opportunity to thank all of the staff in our schools for the tremendous work that they have done to keep our schools open, and our children safe.

And finally:- This weekend brings with it the promise of a return to some form of normality over the coming few days. Whilst for the vast majority of people this will bring with it a great sense of relief, there are those for whom this moment will bring anxiety and stress. This is not only the case for those with serious health issues, but there are those who have not ventured past their front door for over a year. In today's Gospel we see a wonderful image of the Lord's loving care for his disciples. Concerned for their well being he takes them off, after their missionary activities, to a "lonely place", a place where they can find rest and refreshment. We then see this loving care and concern move outwards for His intimate circle of disciples to caring for the whole of the community that had followed Him. As we move out of the current situation into a 'new normal' for our way of living and practising our faith, we must follow the example set by our Lord. Our attitude must be one of care and concern for others. Rescinding the restrictions on our lives is not a green light to forget everything that we have learnt and so return to life as if nothing has changed. In all that we do in the weeks, months and years ahead be shaped by the life of the Lord, a life of caring concern for others and the mutual flourishing of us all.

May God bless and protect you all. Fr. Craig
