And finally:- Last Tuesday we celebrated the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the Temple. That moment when, in fulfilment of the Law, Mary and Joseph offered a sacrifice to the Lord to redeem their first born son. As well as the Holy Family two other important figures, Simeon and Anna the prophetess, come to the fore. Whilst this is the only occasion in the Scriptures that we encounter these two people they, and their lives, have much to teach us in our Christian discipleship. We are told that Simeon was a 'devote man' who patiently spent his days 'look[ing] forward to Israel's comforting'. Anna, now well on in years, 'never left the Temple, serving God night and day with fasting and prayer'. Each time we recite the Creed we profess our belief that one day Christ will 'come again in glory'. May the patient waiting of Simeon, and the prayerful example of Anna, help us each day to prepare our hearts and minds for the coming of the Lord.

May God bless you all. Fr. Craig
