Pope Francis:

A prophet is a living sign who points God out to others, a reflection of Christ's light on the path of their brothers and sisters, someone who helps others read the present under the action of the Holy Spirit, to understand God's plans and correspond to them.

SPUC Petition

The Chinese government is imposing forced abortion, sterilisation and infanticide on its own population and especially on the Uyghur minority. The Society for the Protection of Unborn Children (SPUC) is petitioning the UK Government to stop funding a regime that commits these abuses of human rights. You can find out more and sign the petition at:

<https://www.spuc.org.uk/complicit-petition>.

Congratulations

We offer our prayers and our congratulations to Soairse Anne McMillan Y who was baptised here last weekend. We pray also for her parents and Godparents as they take on the responsibility of raising her in the practice of the faith.

Sacrament of the Sick

Please remember to inform Fr. Craig directly in case of sickness, especially if it requires hospital treatment or a prolonged absence from Mass. If you cannot inform the clergy yourself it is then your family who should take on this responsibility.

And finally:- On this Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time the Prophet Zechariah encourages us to "rejoice heart and soul". Despite all that the people of Israel had to undergo, the prophet reminds them that if they trust in the Lord, He will come to them – He will be with them - and in Him they will triumph. This same image is taken up in the gospel when the Lord invites us to "shoulder [His] yoke and learn from [Him]". The 'yoke' of course is the instrument by which two are bound together in order that they may work as one. Taking upon ourselves the Lord's 'yoke' means being united to Him in all that we do, and in all that we may have to undergo in our daily lives. This 'yoke' brings to those who bear it the gifts of gentleness, humility, and the promise of resting in the love of Christ. Having this gift of faith, the knowledge that Christ is with us in all that we do, brings us comfort as we face the challenges of life, sure and certain in the knowledge that we are never alone, that the Lord bears our burdens with us.

May God bless you all, Fr. Craig
