Pope Francis:

If in our hearts we are carrying some burden or suffering that seems to crush us, it is the moment to go to meet Jesus, who is close, to open the tomb of our problems and look beyond the threshold toward his light.

This Week's CaFOD Prayer (Fifth Sunday of Easter)

Lord Jesus, you have gone ahead to prepare a place for us, your Father's chosen people. Come back; take us with you, so that we too may be where you are.

Fix the Food System

And finally:- On Friday we gathered, as a community, to say farewell to Deacon John at the celebration of his Requiem Mass. It is with thanksgiving in our hearts for the 27 years of faithful service as a Deacon in our parish we commended John to the loving mercy of the Lord, praying that he may now receive from the Lord the reward of his labours here on earth. At Easter, as the Lord rose from the tomb, he opened for all who believe in Him the way to eternal life. On the Cross he destroyed the power of death as He wiped out the record of our sinfulness by His ascension He leads us in His victory procession back to the heart of the Father – this is our hope, this is our faith! Filled with the same faith that inspired Deacon John throughout his life we continue to pray for the repose of his soul. Inspired by his life of service we pray that we too may dedicate ourselves to following the Lord until he calls us home to heaven.

May God bless you all, Fr. Craig
